Detailed Action

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment and accompanying remarks filed 10-31-2003 have been entered and carefully considered.

The amendment is insufficient to overcome the anticipation and obviousness rejections of claims 23-32.

2. The text of US code absent in this Office Action can be found in the previous office action
3. Claims 29-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DE 196-54-361 A1 in view of US 6,200,696 to Farooque et al as set forth in the previous office action.
4. Claims 31-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DE 196-54-361 A1 in view of US 6168703 to Lee et al as set forth in the previous office action.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant argues that DE 196-54-361 A1 fails to enable for alternating first and second porous catalyst layers since the intended use of reactor disclosed by Behr would have been compromised. However, the walls of the reactor layers are interpreted as being integral parts of the reactor layers. The walls are porous and coated with catalyst. As a result, Applicant's arguments are found to be unpersuasive.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 1764

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL.

See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
